Bridgewater House, Carl Fogarty Way, Blackburn, BB1 3AY

Location

The property is prominently positioned on Carl Fogarty Way, the main link road connecting Junction 6 of the M65 motorway to Blackburn town centre. Both the motorway and town centre are conveniently located approximately 1km from the premises.

The surrounding area is home to major businesses including Tesco Superstore (immediately behind the property), Lidl, Coolkit, and Training 2000. Nearby, Furthergate Industrial Estate hosts leading companies such as Graham & Brown, reinforcing the area's reputation as a prime business destination.

Description

This newly constructed showroom spans three levels (see accommodation schedule for detailed area breakdown) and is available either as a custom-finished space tailored to the occupier's requirements or in a shell finish for complete flexibility.

The property features a predominantly glazed façade with floor-to-ceiling windows, providing exceptional natural light and a contemporary aesthetic. A spacious ground-floor atrium creates an impressive entrance, offering a bold first impression.

The lower ground floor is accessible via four electrically operated roller shutter doors, which can be converted to glazed entrances if preferred. Internally, the space features a solid concrete floor and a completely open-plan layout, allowing for full customisation to meet specific business needs.

Further details on the building's specification are available upon request.
